

Release: McDonald's of Uvalde Opens

McDonald's of Uvalde re-opened July 28th after a four-month rebuild. On opening day, Frank Mendoza, owner/operator said "My family and I are thrilled at our guests' response to Uvalde McDonald's re-opening. Please be patient with us as we do our best to serve each guest."

The restaurant has been totally redesigned and now offers a Drive-Thru with double ordering points, digital menu boards, lobby ordering kiosks, a state of the art kitchen and a play place.

"This year commemorates our Uvalde restaurant's 40th anniversary. We couldn't think of a better way to celebrate this milestone than to invite our guests to enjoy the newest and best experience McDonald's has to offer," continues Mendoza.

The Uvalde restaurant first opened its doors in December of 1982. It was the third area restaurant opened by owners Frank and Martha Mendoza, who reside in Del Rio.

The couple along with their family, now own and operate eleven McDonald's from Del Rio to Castroville and Eagle Pass to Cotulla on I-35. All eleven locations are hiring. Interested applicants are able to apply online at Careers.McDonalds.com.
