THCRR

Personnel

In mid-February, Director Erica Sagebiel tendered her resignation, marking a significant change within our organization. Following her departure, the Executive Director position was promptly advertised on various platforms, including the TACVB website, the Visit Uvalde County Website, and the Uvalde Leader Newspaper. Despite diligent efforts to fill the role, the position remains open, underscoring our commitment to finding the right individual to lead our team and further our mission.

Our River Cleanup Contractor has resumed operations, and Danny Williams has returned to No Limits, contributing to river cleaning efforts while also assisting in office tasks on weekends. A vacancy arose for the front desk position during weekdays, which we announced on our Facebook page in search of a qualified replacement. We're thrilled to welcome Dara Ruiz to our team, and she has swiftly demonstrated her value as an outstanding addition, delivering exceptional service as our front desk host.

Dallas Travel Show

Hailey Conrad and Melissa Bates embarked on a journey to Dallas to represent our region at a prominent travel show. During their time there, they engaged with numerous other Convention and Visitors Bureaus (CVBs) from across Texas, gathering valuable insights on marketing strategies tailored to our area. Their interactions extended to discussions with numerous travel agents and individuals keenly interested in exploring Uvalde County. Additionally, they successfully acquired an email list, which has been seamlessly integrated into our general advertising email database, enhancing our outreach efforts.

TOTAL SOLAR ECLIPSE PREPARATIONS

School & Community Informational

The Texas Hill Country River Region (THCRR) and the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce joined forces to deliver an educational lecture to private schools across Uvalde County, focusing on the highly anticipated Total Solar Eclipse. Led by a knowledgeable representative from NASA, students were guided through a comprehensive session on the eclipse's significance and safety measures. As part of the initiative, each student received solar filters, ensuring a safe and enriching experience during this celestial event.

After the event, the NASA representative extended the educational outreach by delivering a similar talk to the general public. This presentation provided attendees with valuable insights into the upcoming Total Solar Eclipse. Additionally, solar filters, along with various Solar Eclipse memorabilia, were made available for purchase, offering attendees the opportunity to further engage with and commemorate this extraordinary celestial event.

County Eclipse Preparedness

In preparation for the influx of visitors, the Texas Hill Country River Region (THCRR) took proactive measures by acquiring 100 portable toilets to strategically position throughout the county. To enhance visitor experience and ensure smooth navigation during the Solar Eclipse event, an elaborate guide was meticulously crafted. This guide, containing a comprehensive map of the county, pinpointed the locations of the port-a-potties, highlighted key events, showcased dining options, and outlined the various visitor centers. By distributing this detailed guide, visitors were equipped with valuable resources to facilitate their stay and exploration within the region.
